The main content area contains several UI elements. At the top right are four buttons labeled "Link 1", "Link 2", "Link 3", and "Link 4", with "Link 4" being blue. Below them is a "Sign Up" button. The central part of the screen features a large, semi-transparent circular overlay containing the word "TIGO" in bold, black, sans-serif letters. Behind the overlay, there are several horizontal progress bars of varying lengths and colors (blue, grey), some with circular markers. There are also two sets of dropdown menus with arrows pointing down, and a small "..." button. At the bottom of the main content area, there are three small rectangular buttons.

This image shows a wireframe interface for a photo sharing application, likely a competitor to Instagram. The interface is organized into several sections:

- Left Sidebar: Contains user profile cards (represented by icons with dots) and a search bar.
- Link 1: A section containing a grid of photo cards. Each card includes a thumbnail, a caption input field, and a row of five circular icons. Below the grid is a large image viewer with a placeholder icon and a selection button.
- Link 2: A section showing a single photo card with a dashed selection box around it. This card also includes a caption input field and a row of five circular icons.
- Top Right: A "Sign Up" button.

The central part of the screen features a large circular logo with the word "TIGO" in bold black letters, set against a light gray background. To the left of the logo is a horizontal bar with several dark blue segments and some small circles. Below the logo are two sets of three rectangular buttons each, with dropdown arrows on the right. On the far right, there is a small "..." button. The overall layout is clean and modern, using a palette of blues, grays, and blacks.
